SOME OTHER THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW : *

I am an open-minded and representative person with broad interests and an entrepreneurial, positive, energetic and young spirit; driven and enthusiastic, stimulating and socially involved with people.

As a natural, mostly intuitive leader, I enjoy the management of people and complex situations in a hectic and changing environment. A flexible changemanager and crisesmanager, constantly searching for ways to improve efficiency, overall quality, employee- and clientsatisfaction. An autonomic, success- and result driven professional and senior manager, always finding creative, unexpected and unconventional solutions for the challenges I meet on my professional and personal path.

Raised with a solid working ethos and a "lead by example" mentality. Involved and loyal to the cause and company. A motivating, highly professional and involved people-manager and teambuilder. A good coach with a track record in empowermental skills.

Speaking/understanding 5 languages (Dutch, German, English, French, Italian), understanding and speaking a little Spanish. A healthy person, well trained at stress and timemanagement. Loving all the good things that life has to offer; people, good (healthy) food (good cook), travelling, arts (music, dance, theater, architecture, interior decorating, design & fashion), cars, big cities (New York addict: shopping and Broadway shows), and countryside; hectic as well as quiet. Italy: italian food, culture and movies. Eager to study, to develop and learn; loving to read and to write.

Personal Motto

I am the conductor of my own concert. There are no doubts in my mind whatsoever to what my unlimited possibilities are. To achieve the most and the best, any restrictions will be eliminated. To avoid a boring life I will create my own challenges. Not a negative soul in the world can withhold me. Without boundaries I will explore and live my life to the limits, during the limited time we have. Life is good!

Specialties: Senior management and leadership, people management, empowerment, teambuilding, coaching, targets, changemanagement, hands-on operational skills, crisesmanagement, problemsolving, analytical, client orientation, clientsatisfaction, employee satisfaction, Quality management.
